Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

APRIL 28, 1987-by VIRGINIA ARRAL

GROWTH STEERING COMMITTEE NAMED

Peter Kortright, chairman of the Growth Management Study Committee, last Tuesday presented Selectmen with a list of names he recommended as an 11-member steering committee, comprised of interested citizens. These members will serve in conjunction with representatives of nine town boards to come up with a growth plan for the town.

Kortright admitted having a difficult time selecting a steering committee of a workable size from the 17 who volunteered, all who are reliable people but some have very busy work schedules. Selectmen agreed with his recommendations and urged he send letters to each board requesting it name a representative and alternate to the Growth Committee. Kortright said a joint meeting will be scheduled in about three weeks.

Named to the Steering Committee were Dan Ostrye, professional engineer with GHR Engineering; Wayne

Kortright will make the 11th member.

Town boards who will add their input to the committee include the Planning Board, Zoning Board of Appeals, Board of Health, Water Department, Highway Department, Conservation Commission, Harbormaster Historic Commission and the Building Inspector.

Others who volunteered their services and may be called in the future for their assistance are: William Wood, Betty Jean Rocha, Drew Kolek, Robert Coquillette, William Blasdale.

In giving Selectman William Hubbard a background of the Growth Committee, Kortright said a sense of the meeting vote at the 1986 town meeting recommended the formation of the committee. With the help of William Matthews of the Planning Board and Southeastern Regional Planning and Economic Development District (SRPEDD), a questionnaire was filled out at an open meeting March 5th. With only a few responses Kortright has prepared a more "Mattapoisett-oriented" questionnaire to be passed out at the annual town meeting to reach a wider selection of residents. "We want more input from residents; later we may need professional help in applying for grants farther down the road," said Kortright.

Selectman Hubbard said, "About 15 years ago the five-member Planning Board tried to get a growth study going, but its members got too busy to do it properly, with limited help, and it fell by the wayside".

Selectmen reappointed Mr. Kortright as the town's delegate to SRPEDD's policy making body.

In other business, Selectmen:

MET WITH Dr. Clayton King and Michael Renzi of the Industrial Committee to discuss the zoning article to be voted on at the annual town meeting pertaining to a proposed change in the density of the lots at the Corporate Park from 25 percent to 50 percent. The zoning change was suggested by John Folino at a previous meeting. Folino, who is owner of Cape Building Systems at the Park, had a petition signed by several businessmen and employees at the Park seeking the change.

Mr. Renzi said if the change goes through, there will be problems; the quality of building won't be the same as what it started out to be at the Park. He asked if Universal could accommodate a larger number of employees in the parking area if the building is expanded. Selectmen seemed to feel it could be worked out.

Selectman Hubbard said he believes there are only five more buildable lots at the Park and three are owned by one company, making only two for sale.

Mr. Renzi felt the Planning Board and the Industrial Committee should have had more input before Selectmen gave their approval of the change for town meeting. "As an example, Renzi said, " if I went into the Park with the understanding it was 25 percent for the building, then if you change it down the line, this is not conducive to bringing in new businesses. In my opinion as a resident, I think an existing situation could be made worse." Dr. King said he agreed with Mr. Renzi's opinions.

Selectman Hubbard explained the Industrial Committee originally was set up to get new industry, not so much to oversee the zoning rules; however, he and Chairman John DeCosta agreed the committee members have a right to voice their objections.

running loose in the woods around his property. Last summer, he said, one of the dogs came into his yard and petrified his two year old child and killed 20 of his chickens. He said he checked with neighbors, Fairhaven authorities and the state Department of Natural Resources. The state told him to call the police. The local police told him the dogs could run as long as the land was not posted, so he posted his land.

Both DeCosta and Hubbard stressed in order for the signs to be legally effective they would have to include the landowner's name and address and be placed at a specific number of feet apart. Chairman DeCosta noted there are signs reading "dog training area" on the adjoining land, but these are probably old ones that were placed there before there were so many homes in the neighborhood. Mr. Cabral said he will obtain the necessary signs.

Chairman DeCosta told Ruel that that date has been scheduled for the Lions' Club Harbor Day festivities where a majority of activities will be centered on the wharf and Shipyard Park. Ruel was asked to check the Lions' Club and Harbormaster Steve Mach to determine if there will be any conflict. 50th Wedding Anniversary

by VIRGINIA ARRAL

Fifty years together surrounded by family and friends has suited Milt and Bernice Heuberger of 16 North Street just fine, as they spoke on their 50th wedding anniversary. "We've experienced no desire to live any place else but here in Mattapoisett in our married life, and in just three houses in all that time."

Those 50 happy years began on April 16, 1937 when Bernice Knight was wed to Milton Heuberger at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church parsonage on Hammond Street by the then pastor, the Rev. Paul B. Myers.

Surrounded by over 300 family members and friends, those 50 years were celebrated on Sunday, April 26, in Reynard Hall of the Congregational Church with an open house. The hall was gaily decorated in gold and white. The couple expressed their thanks to their five children, and especially to a family friend, Shirley Tinkham, who helped with the day's festivities.

Bernice exclaimed, "It was beautiful to see all our old friends - people we hadn't seen in years! It was especially nice to see Bertha (Coggeshall) Serpa who was my bridesmaid." Milton's best man was his late brother, Chester Heuberger.

Bernice's sister, Mrs. Helen Lukins of San Jose, California, and her sister-in-law, Ruth Knight, came from Campbell, California. Friends Sherman Kinney from Hamilton, Mass. and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Toomey of Portsmouth, New Hampshire also attended.

The couple's five children are Lois Ennis, Milton, Jr., Robert, Catherine West and Eleanor Poirier. A sixth child, David, died when

JUST HOW GOOD ARE WE?

Just one year ago we bought the BEST color lab on the market. We sent our operators to school, we bought only the best paper and chemistry available. The result has been just what we hoped for.....WE DO THE BEST PROCESSING MONEY CAN BUY. That's no idle statement.....we're ready to PROVE IT. Give us your next roll of film and we'll show you how good YOU really are. More pictures are ruined by the processor than by the photographer, so if you've been unhappy with the color, the sharpness, the overall look of your photography, we suggest it's time for a change. Whether you've been giving your film to a drug store, a discount house, a mail-away company or ANYONE ELSE, we'll promise to do it better....AND ALWAYS ....SAME DAY SERVICE AT NO EXTRA CHARGE.

of a "50" enclosed in glass and framed with the designation 1937-1987 to "Gram and Gramp". Photos of the 1937 wedding and family photos of the children over the years were on display, as was a guest book. Bernice said, "Milt and I were thrilled to receive a congratulatory card from President and Mrs. Ronald Reagan.

Milt is retired from his full-time job after 34 years working for New Bedford Rayon Mill, but his many part-time jobs keep him busy, as superintendent of the town's Christian cemeteries, which he has done since 1948. Bernice, too, keeps busy with a combination of jobs, as bus matron for the School Department; beach matron during the summer months and police matron year round.

When the comment is made "Mattapoisett - It's Special", here are two people who typify the meaning of the expression, Bernice and Milt Heuberger.

There will be a beautiful slide show, as well as samples of bones, broken teeth, and other artifacts which can be seen and handled. Also, Ms. Young will be speaking about the Web of Live Outdoor Education Center, which is dedicated to providing quality environmental education to the New England community. The tri-towns, Rochester, Mattapoisett and Marion, received a 2 year grant, provided by the Council on the Arts and Humanities of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, which enabled the Web of Life program to work with the tri-town schools. For the past year the 5th grade students have studied a wide range of environmental subjects, from jellyfish to June bugs, and creepy crawlies to plants. Teachers have also participated in workshops.

On May 8th "A Whale of an Evening" will provide the community a wonderful program for all ages to enjoy. Bring the family Friday, May 8th, at 7:30 to the Rochester Memorial School, Pine Street, Rochester.

three SMC Playoffs. This was the fourth consecutive SMC Chess League Championship for ORR and its fourth consecutive undefeated season. During this period ORR has played 48 matches without a loss.

Picking up points for ORR in the final match of the season were Erik Sylvia (captain), Rick Hiller, Gary Prevost, and Nat Everett. According to Mr. Cameron, team advisor, "This was by far our toughest season in the past four years. In previous years ORR was shutting out just about everyone 5-0. This year we had some very tough competition in Martha's Vineyard. They have an excellent team with a large following. The players this year for ORR were seasoned veterans and a close knit group of dedicated students. They've practiced hard all season and didn't take any team for granted. I'm very proud of each and every player. Finally, I would like to publicly thank Mr. Ron Zeidler of Mattapoisett for his generous donation of numerous chess books. They've definitely helped our players with openings, end games, and chess strategies and we all appreciate his kindness."

QUESTION:

WHY SHOULD CHILDREN HAVE CHIROPRACTIC SPINAL MANIPULATION?

ANSWER: Because growth and development can be affected by minor bumps, jars and falls.

Every year, thousands of structural health problems in students of grade and high school level go undetected even though teachers, coaches and physical education instructors watch for health irregularities which might interfere with a child's physical performance and learning ability.

Part of their jobs? Not really. It's that extra sense of dedication that makes these already overworked public servants give children that extra attention. The "school guardian" is responsible in many cases for the detection of potential health problems and the funneling of children to proper health authorities.

What most people don't know is that most health problems are far too complex for the teacher to note. And with a busy schedule, the educator can't be expected to have the time to screen problems that are beyond his or her scope of training, no matter how conscientious the teacher may be. The result: many children have health problems that retard their ability to learn or engage in sports effectively.

Here's what you can do:

- Parents should be urged to take more responsibility for their children's health.
- Parents and teachers should be alert to such things as changes in energy level, postural changes, moodiness, listlessness or any unusual signs that signal a problem that will impede learning. One of the observable signs is lack of interest in school activities.
- The structural balance of the child's body should be considered. The school teacher will no doubt note the child's posture, but that does not always indicate the structural integrity of the body. Comprehensive chiropractic examinations, including examinations of the spine, pelvis, neck and limbs should be recommended to avoid developmental problems.
- Incorporate posture awareness programs into your class projects. Write for suggestions and materials.

STUDENTS VISIT COMPUTER MUSEUM

Recently Old Colony Data Processing Sophomores and Freshmen participated in a field trip to the Boston Computer Museum.

The students received guided tours of the five floor facility. The students had the opportunity to view computers as they existed many years ago. The museum has vacuum tube computers as well as keypunch systems dating back to the 1950s.

The students, who are trained on state of the art IBM and Digital Computers at school, were able to gain a historical prospective on the rapidly changing technology in the Data Processing field.

The trip was funded through Old Colony's School Improvement Council.

OPENS FOR SEASON MAY 10th

Heritage Plantation of Sandwich on Cape Cod opens to the public for its 19th season on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 10th, featuring two major new exhibitions, "Mermaids and Air Balloons" and "Plain and Fancy" in the Art Museum. The shows run through October.

The lively and colorful painting show honors the career of the late revered Cape Cod artist Ralph E. Cahoon. Cahoon first achieved recognition as a decorator of antique furniture and to emphasize this duality, "Plain and Fancy", New England Painted Furniture, will be exhibited in conjunction with the Cahoon paintings.

"People of the Potlatch" - The Indians of the Northwest Coast is a new exhibition in the Military Museum which highlights the unique culture of the Native American inhabitants of coastal British Columbia and southern Alaska. Due to the region's great wealth in food, the Indian inhabitants found leisure time to create an artistic tradition that was the most productive and exciting of any in North America. Featured in the exhibition are tools, weapons, masks, rattles, blankets, totem poles, argillite carvings and other artifacts on loan from the Hood Museum of Art, Dartmouth College, the Peabody Museum of Salem and Mystic Seaport, Inc. in Connecticut.

"Civil War on Land and Sea" will continue in the Military Museum for a second year. The exhibition which is presented in the changing exhibition gallery offers a diversified display of objects and equipment including weapons, uniforms, maps and documents as well as examples of illustrations taken from contemporary newspapers.

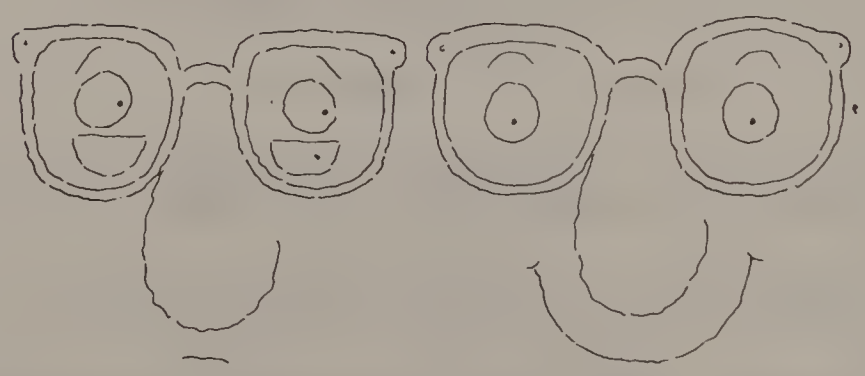
How to look 10 years younger... without joining a health spa or cruising to Tahiti.



Turn in your age-revealing bifocals for the lenses with no lines. Sola VIP lenses.

VIP™ lenses look more flattering and natural than bifocals... and they're more effective.

You get distance, close-up and mid-range corrections—with no visible lines.

You see more comfortably, too, without the "hemmed-in" or "jumpy" feeling of segments.

Stop in today for a personal demonstration.

Barbershop Concert

The Boston Consort Quartet from Boston will be one of several quartets featured in the Barbershop Concert Saturday, May 9th, at New Bedford High School.

The group is known for its unique sound and pure style of barbershop harmony. Three of the hobbyist foursome comprised The Boston Common, International Champion Quartet, which appeared in 46 states and five foreign countries, on several network radio and television programs (including NBC's Today Show and BBC television), as well as in Carnegie Hall and other major theaters. The group was required to alter its name due to a personnel change.

According to a Boston reviewer, no barbershop quartet can match the singing style equal to that of the group with an eye toward pleasing varying audiences, whether college students or old song buffs, The Boston Consort boasts a repertoire reflective of virtually every musical taste -- ranging from old-fashioned barbershop ballads to contemporary tune-ups; from vaudeville to current stage hits -- all in traditional barbershop style.

The Boston Consort is comprised of an aircraft engine test planner (the tenor), a government administrator (the lead), a real estate executive (the baritone), and an advertising and public relations agency executive (the bass). In that same order, their names are Fran Page, Tom Spirito, Larry Tully and Terry Clarke.

Forerunner to The Boston Consort, The Boston Common, formed in January 1971 at the home of a mutual friend. Encouraged by the sounds the original group generated, the friend urged the four to remain to-

"I guess you could say we took quartet harmony back to the streets where it flourished at the turn of the century throughout the United States. And we were encouraged by the number and variety of people who enjoyed it."

The group initially sang anywhere people would listen -- in Harvard Square, coffee houses, and at other public gathering sports, before entering international competition.
